WHY SPONSOR

Sponsoring KCDs offers companies a unique opportunity to achieve multiple strategic objectives.

SUPPORTED BY

01 KCDs provides unparalleled brand awareness within the cloud-native and Kubernetes communities, connecting your company with highly engaged developers, system engineers, architects & technical leaders.

03 Associate your brand with one of the fastest-growing technology communities and demonstrates your commitment to community growth and development.

02 Gain access to networking opportunities with quality, targeted attendees, and leverage KCDs as a powerful platform to promote your product and recruit top talent from a diverse pool of skilled professionals.

04 By supporting KCDs, your brand will enhance its credibility by establishing itself as a prominent and influential player in Cloud Native technology.

On October 10th, the Kubernetes and Cloud Native community will gather in Madrid for a one-day technical conference loaded with exciting talks and plenty of opportunities for growing and networking. What to expect:

- KCD Madrid 2024 will be the first and the biggest CNCF event organized in Madrid.
- Over 300 developers, system engineers, and IT professionals attending this year's event.
- A diverse and vibrant community of local and international attendees.

THE VENUE – CEU Universidad San Pablo – Montepíncipe

KCD Madrid 2024 is set to take place at the CEU Politécnica Montepíncipe Campus, Boadilla del Monte, Madrid. Metro and Bus stations are available and it is well-connected to the center of Madrid via the M-50 and M-501 highways, ensuring convenient access for attendees.

The campus boasts two auditoriums with seating capacities of 500 and 280, alongside multiple conference rooms.

This setup supports the hosting of three or more tracks concurrently. Additionally, there's a covered outdoor area that can be utilized for lunch and activities following the event.
